

Deerfield Massacre
1704

Inquiry + Answer

according to Hattie Cox Sheriff Grandma Martha Jane Bybee Cox was a great family Historian.
Martha Jane is quoted to mention this event and families of relation + Bybees who died there.

Cora Cox Fild

4-29-07

Rt 1, Box 86AA
Kempner, Texas 76539

July 5, 1979

Dear Sirs:

RE: genealogical research
@ Deerfield Massacre 1704
Deerfield, Massachusetts.

Is there a book or record somewhere listing the names of those who died at the Deerfield Massacre in 1704?

I borrowed a book last summer through inter library loan on the Deerfield Massacre but no names were listed.

One of my cousins who used to live in Massachusetts says a tomb has been erected for the ones who died at that massacre and that on the tomb the names of those who died.

One of those and possibly more are ancestors of mine and I would really enjoy any leads or assistance you could give.

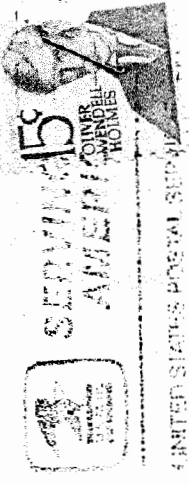

(Over)

Sincerely,

Cora Cox Weaver

TRY | NEW ENGLAND -
HISTORIC GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

101 NEWBURY STREET
BOSTON, MASS. 02116

Ms. Cora Cox Weaver
Route 1, Box 86 AA
Kempner, Texas 76539

Bay State
Historical League

Room 27
The State House
Boston, MA 02133

research sacre 1704 Massachusetts

or record somewhere
of those who died Massacre in 1704?
book last summer
any loan on the but no names

coins who used to ette says a tomb for the ones who sacre and that ie names of those re and possibly ors of mine and enjoy any leads you could give.

Sincerely
Cora Cox Weaver

(over)